

Baden-Württemberg Stiftung: The Baden-Württemberg-STIPENDIUM for Students

Overview

Programme Description

The Baden-Württemberg-STIPENDIUM for Students is a programme established by the Baden-Württemberg Stiftung [https://www.bwstiftung.de/startseite/].

You can apply if

- you are a highly qualified undergraduate, graduate or doctoral student
- you study at institutions of higher education either in the federal state of Baden-Württemberg \(Germany\) [https://career-start-bw.com/] or at their international partner institutions
- you want to spend 1 or 2 exchange semesters at one of the partner institutions either in Baden-Württemberg (Germany) or abroad

The applications are exclusively handled by the International Offices; not by the Baden-Württemberg Stiftung. For specific information on the application process, the deadline and application forms, please contact the International Office at your higher education institution.

Every year about 1,500 young people from all over the world are given the opportunity to study abroad with the Baden-Württemberg-STIPENDIUM. Scholarships are equally distributed between applicants from the federal state of Baden-Württemberg going abroad and candidates from abroad coming to the German federal state Baden-Württemberg.

Target Group

The programme is intended for highly qualified undergraduates, graduates and doctoral candidates from all disciplines at institutions of higher education in Baden-Württemberg and their partner institutions abroad.

Academic Requirements

enrolment at a higher education institution in Baden-Württemberg or a partner institution abroad

Number of Scholarships

about 1,500 scholarships per year

Duration

The funding period ranges between 3 and 11 months.

Scholarship Value

The scholarship amount varies, depending on the distance to the partner institution, any possible tuition fees, the costs of living in the host country, any possible currency differences or particular visa requirements, etc.

The scholarship is calculated individually and amounts from 600 EUR to 1,400 EUR per month. Scholars also receive non-material assistance and are part of a broad international network connecting people from different disciplines and cultures.
